

I am an over-the-road truck driver and I feel that because this is a subscription service, the NAB has no justification in attempting to have it removed. It is a tool that I use every day I am on the road; a tool that normal local radio cannot provide or are so laced with commercials that the important parts are cut short--